RPET MOOREA A4 DOCUMENT BRIEFCASE

Magnetic closure flap, slip-in compartment, elastic multifunctional straps, two elastic slip-in compartments with business card pockets, cell phone/tablet holder, pen loop, writing pad

The A4 RPET case in anthracite color from Alassio is a high-quality, environmentally friendly writing accessory made from recycled PET material. It is ideal for professional use or for everyday use at school or in the office.

The case has a classic design and an elegant anthracite color that is both timeless and stylish. It is A4 in size and offers enough space to safely store documents, pens, business cards and other important documents.

Inside, there are several slots for business cards or credit cards. A pen loop ensures that you always have a pen at hand when you need it.

The A4 RPET document case in anthracite color from Alassio features high quality and workmanship. The RPET material used in its production is environmentally friendly and sustainable, as it is made from recycled plastic bottles. This makes the case an eco-friendly choice for those who value sustainability.
